A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

As we continue our meditations on wisdom, we come to Saying number 10 found in the Book of Proverbs chapter 23v9: "Do not speak to fools, for they will scorn your prudent words". This seems a strange instruction. Surely wise people should impart their wisdom to those who are not so wise? Of course, if they are teachable, it's a privilege and responsibility. So, what does this saying mean? The Biblical definition of a fool is not someone who is uneducated or has a low IQ, but someone who has no interest in spiritual and eternal matters as summed up in Psalm 14v1 and repeated in Psalm 53v1: "The fool says in his heart, 'There is no God'". In Proverbs 14v9 we read that: "Fools mock at making amends for sin" and that is a very sad fact. Fools will not humble themselves to accept the free gift of salvation which Christ offers everybody because He died for our sins. In reality because they are scornful about spiritual matters, they ridicule the offer and debating with them is a pointless exercise and we just get frustrated and irritated as a result.

Paul warned Timothy against exactly that in 2 Timothy 2v23: "Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels". Friends, don't waste your time in fruitless arguments with fools, but rather impart your wisdom to those who are humble, teachable and genuinely seeking to learn more about Jesus Christ. Jesus Himself said in Matthew 7v6: "Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces". Jesus also told a parable about a fool who didn't give thought to eternal matters in Luke 12v19: "And I'll say to myself, 'You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.'" 'But God said to him, "You fool! This very

WHAT'S ON ### PREVENT FRAUD, AND DON'T BE A VICTIM OF SCAMS. PEOPLE MUST BE AWARE AND BE VIGILANT.

- Don't give out personal information on the phone, through the mail or over the internet unless you have initiated the contact or know whom you are dealing with.
- Verify if the representative posing on behalf of the company does indeed work at the company
- Criminals sometimes uses the names of banks and their officials to give credibility to their "referrals" or support other aspects of their "to good-to be-true" business proposals
- The offer may even be backed with impressive-looking documentation and letterheads, which may even be genuine, that have been stolen or reproduced.
- Once you are hooked, you will be asked to deposit money to help the transaction take place.

- If you make a deposit, you will never see the money again.
- Under no circumstances should you attempt to reply, either by email, phone or post.
- We urge you not to become another statistic in these scams.

The Plettenberg ranks No2 as Best Hotel in Eastern and Southern Africa (Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards)

Condé Nast Traveler has announced the results of its prestigious 2023 Readers'
Choice Awards, which saw The Liz McGrath Collection's Plettenberg Bay
hotel, The Plettenberg, voted as runner-up in the category of Best Hotels in Eastern and Southern Africa. With a score of 98.54, it followed hot on the heels of Babylonstoren, which was placed first this year at 98.55.

The Cellars-Hohenort Hotel & Spa, sister-hotel to The Plettenberg, also retained its longstanding spot on this list of best hotels by scoring 96.50 points, which earned it 12th place in the 2023 rankings.

As one of the global travel industry's longest-running accolades, the Readers' Choice Awards remain the ultimate symbol and acknowledgment of excellence within the travel sector. This year, more than 520,000 Condé Nast Traveler readers submitted responses rating their travel experiences across the globe to offer a comprehensive look at the places they eagerly anticipate revisiting.

Jacqui Elliot, CEO of The Liz McGrath Collection says they are thrilled with The Plettenberg's performance over the last year.
Under the leadership of general manager
Melissa Theron, it has moved up the rankings from 11th place in 2022, beating stiff competition from other prominent hotels in the region to take second place in 2023, in what is known as one of the world's most prestigious awards programmes.

The Plettenberg has direct beach access and showcases the most breathtaking vistas on the Garden Route, with views of the ocean, mountains and endless stretches of golden sand. A proud member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World, it features 35 beautifully appointed guest rooms, including 12 Suites and two spectacular Villas.

The 2023 Readers' Choice Awards are published on Condé Nast Traveler's website and celebrated in the November issue.
