Turtle hatchling season

has begun in Plett.

The first hatchling was spotted along Solar Beach. Keep an eye out for these tiny turtles during your beach walks—they're often no bigger than a car key. Remember, never return them to the water.

If you find a hatchling, alive or deceased,
please notify our program manager at 082
336-2979 or the Plett Marine Standing
Hotline at 079 463-4837 immediately.

Among the frequently encountered hatch-
lings are endangered loggerhead turtles,
with occasional sightings of leatherback turtles in the area. Let's work together to protect these precious (and endangered)
marine species!

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver - Proverbs 25v11

Today we continue our series: "Christ is in every book of the Old Testament". Last week was in Genesis and today we look at how the Passover Lamb in Exodus 12 is a type of the perfect sacrificial lamb, as Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 5v7: "For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed". The lamb is an ancient symbol of meekness and humility which is willing to submit to the will of its master so is a perfect representation of the attribute of Christ, as we read in Isaiah 6v8: "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I. Send me'". In the Exodus story we notice some interesting requirements - the lamb had to be spotless, and everyone had to apply the blood of the lamb around the door of his house. We know Christ was sinless, but not all of us realise we have to individually identify with His sacrificial death by believing that His blood washes away our sins - as John the Baptist proclaimed in John 1v29: "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world". However, we must never forget that He is also referred in Revelation 5v5 as the Lion of the tribe of Judah. Why? Because at the end of time He will reveal His awesome power: "As surely as I live," says the Lord, "Every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God." See Romans 4v11. The choice is ours - we can either believe now that He died for us as our sacrificial lamb and enjoy peace because our sins have been forgiven or after we die have to bow the knee before the lion of Judah and endure His wrathful judgement because our sins are not atoned for. It's a no-brainer!

God Bless, Graeme Greenwood

PLEASE HELP get Liphelo Mpambani the money he needs....

Good day
I am Liphelo Mpambani a 18 year old Plettenberg Bay resident and a student at York High school in George, I have been playing hockey for several years and have had opportunities to grow and play for Eden in previous years and for my school's boys hockey first team. Recently I was privileged to be selected with a number of other hockey players to play in a tournament that will be taking part in the Netherlands in September. I feel this is a once in a lifetime opportunity and I would love the chance to play for my team in another country. This opportunity needs for me to raise R55000 to be able to go overseas and I would love to be able to do that with all of my heart, I am pleading with to anyone and everyone to please help me with sponsoring me so that I may go on the trip. I hope I may get a satisfactory response soon.
