The Plettenberg appoints Executive Chef

The Plettenberg has appointed Ewald Schulenburg as Executive Chef at The Plettenberg.

He trained at Warwick's Chefs Training School in Hermanus and comes with 17 years' experience.

He started his career at Arabella Hotel & Spa, followed by Simola Golf Country Estate & Spa and Fancourt on the Garden Route, before his appointment as Executive Chef at The Cradle Boutique Hotel in Lanseria. This was followed by a stint at Brahman Hills in Nottingham Road/Midlands and most recently, at the Drostdy Hotel in Graaf Reinet as Executive Chef overseeing De Camdeboo Restaurant.

Schulenburg believes that 'simple, clean and authentic dishes are best'. He oversees the kitchen of hotel's newly revamped restaurant, Amelia's at The Plettenberg where the menu is described as an exploration of flavours, ranging from seafood and grills to the classics. He also brings to the table a fresh take on signature dishes of The Liz McGrath Collection, such as the Bouillabaisse Seafood Soup, Dalewood Huguenot Cheese Soufflé and Pan Seared South Atlantic Ocean Tuna.

Let's support this great cause....
SHAVING MY HAIR FOR A GOOD CAUSE

Six years ago I decided that I would grow my hair out from a 0, to one day donate it for Cupcakes of Hope so they could use it to make wigs for little girls going through chemo. I have not coloured my hair or even had anything other than trimming done because of this. Cupcakes of Hope is an inspiring organisation who help affected families with medical bills and support. Shaving my hair off is the best way I know to really make people pay attention, raise awareness and donate to this incredible initiative. I want to raise R500 000 which is a tall ask but there's no harm in trying to do the best that I can even if I don't reach my target. To gather excitement around the build up to the shave I have posted a creative selfie every day through August on Instagram @christystrever.

PLEASE COME SUPPORT MY LIVE EVENT....

Venue: SLOPS eatery

Date: 14th September

Time: 14h00 - 16h00

There will be a raffle for prizes and cupcakes for sale to raise money.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver - Proverbs 25v11

Some people just love to quarrel - one person I knew was proud that he did it to get under the skin of people to discover what they are really like! His logic was flawed, and we read in the Book of Proverbs 17v14: "Starting a quarrel is like breaching a dam; so drop the matter before a dispute breaks out". The writer hit the nail on the head with his metaphor and disputes only have a bad outcome.

In fact, people who are quarrelsome are unfriendly, selfish and lacking discernment and wisdom as we read in chapter 18v1: "An unfriendly person pursues selfish ends and against all sound judgment starts quarrels". Not surprisingly, they are also people who love sin - as we read in Chapter 17v19: "Whoever loves a quarrel loves sin".

Friends let us rather seek to be peacemakers by striving for:

PATIENCE: Proverbs 15v18 says: "A hot-tempered person stirs up conflict, but the one who is patient calms a quarrel".

SENSIBILITY: 2 Timothy 2:23 says: "Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels".

STRENGTH: Proverbs 22v10: "Drive out the mocker, and out goes strife; quarrels and insults are ended".

DISCRETION: Proverbs 26v20: "Without wood a fire goes out; without a gossip a quarrel dies down".

HONESTY: Proverbs 26v18 says: "Like a maniac shooting flaming arrows of death is one who deceives their neighbour and says, 'I was only joking!'".

If we achieve these strengths, the result is a good name. Proverbs 20v3 says: "It is to one's honour to avoid strife, but every fool is quick to quarrel".
