WHAT'S ON

PREVENT FRAUD, AND DON'T BE A VICTIM OF SCAMS. PEOPLE MUST BE AWARE AND BE VIGILANT.

- Don't give out personal information on the phone, through the mail or over the internet unless you have initiated the contact or know whom you are dealing with.
- Verify if the representative posing on behalf of the company does indeed work at the company
- Criminals sometimes uses the names of banks and their officials to give credibility to their "referrals" or support other aspects of their "to good-to-be-true" business proposals
- The offer may even be backed with impressive-looking documentation and letterheads, which may even be genuine, that have been stolen or reproduced.
- Once you are hooked, you will be asked to deposit money to help the transaction take place.
- If you make a deposit, you will never see the money again.
- Under no circumstances should you attempt to reply, either by email, phone or post.
- We urge you not to become another statistic in these scams.

A reminder to our community.

FAMSA assists with all forms of emotional and relationship challenges, e.g. depression, abuse, grief, trauma, parenting and divorce counselling. We would love to assist and make a difference. Call 044 533 0515 for info.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs
25v11

As we continue our meditations on wisdom in the Book of Proverbs chapter 22 we read in verse 24 Do not make friends with a hot-tempered person, do not associate with one easily angered, or you may learn their ways and get yourself ensnared. Whether we are young and idealistic or people with soft hearts we are easily persuaded that we can be a positive influence and change that sort of person. The reality is we become influenced by them and not only tolerate such behaviour, but start to copy it. Friends do the sensible thing and dump hot-headed people however attractive, charming and wealthy they are. It is better to be lonely than be the victim of physical, mental and emotional abuse. Children of hot-headed parents emulate this type of character as they perceive it as normal-parents we need to break this cycle of unrestrained anger and we can only do it if we pray to the Lord to change us and develop the fruits of the Holy Spirit in our lives which includes patience, long suffering, gentleness and self-control. Then our families will be a haven of peace and love counteracting all the anger and hate that we see all around us. Next week we will see the difference between being clever and being wise.

God Bless, Graeme Greenwood
